"DANDERINE"

Grows Thick, Heavy Hair 35-cent Bottle Ends all Dandruff, Stops Hair Coming Out

Ten minutes after using Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.
Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens the hair-growing hair to grow long, strong and lustrous. One application of Danderine makes this, lifeless, colorless hair look youthful, bright, lustrous, and just twice as abundant.

LINER LATE AN HOUR FOR 6,000 CANARIES

Man Feeding Birds Vanishes From Steerage at Arrival of the George Washington.

GERMAN SECRETARY HERE

James P. Goodrich Returns From Mission to Russia for Herbert Hoover.

The George Washington, the biggest liner under the United States flag, arrived at Hoboken just before noon yesterday with 1,214 passengers on board. Had it not been that 6,000 Hartz Mountain canaries on board needed food the ship might have landed her passengers an hour or two earlier.

A little too late to get through the health inspection at quarantine on Friday night, the liner was due for an early clearance yesterday. In checking up the 37 passengers in the steerage the physicians found one man missing. They searched the ship's officers searched and the other passengers searched. Finally the fact that the man in charge of the cargo, consignee of Hartz Mountain canaries, was a German, was a third class passenger was remembered. The man was found industriously feeding and watering his proteges, entirely oblivious of the fact that ship and passengers were held at quarantine for him.

Dr. Hans Riesser, accompanied by his wife and son, arrived to take the post of secretary of the German Embassy at Washington. He is the second German diplomat to reach this country since the war. Unlike Baron von Thurnheim, who preceded him, Dr. Riesser had nothing to say beyond the fact that he did not know who would be appointed German Ambassador to this country.

James P. Goodrich, former Governor of Indiana, who has been in Russia investigating conditions for the American Relief Administration, also returned, but said he could say nothing until he had reported to Herbert Hoover. Another passenger was John McHugh, Stuart London correspondent of THE NEW YORK HERALD.

Also aboard the ship were Spero Pap-pafantou, Greek dancer, Regina Haller, a dramatic soprano who has been touring Germany and Austria, and Theodor Kroell, until recently manager of the Hotel Stephanie in Baden-Baden, who is coming here to take charge of the Hotel Ambassador. Mr. Kroell was manager of the Ritz-Carlton here when it opened and later went to London to become manager of the Ritz there.

IRIGOYEN WON'T HAVE HIS PICTURE TAKEN

Argentine Cabinet Disclaims Circulating Photograph.

BUENOS AIRES, Dec. 2.—President Irgoyen of Argentina is reported to have an aversion to having his picture taken, and it is said that he has persistently refused to sit before a professional photographer.
This reputation is confirmed by the Government organ La Epoca, which takes an anti-Government paper to task for saying that at the instance of one of the departments of the Government photographs of the President were distributed among crowds who gathered at the Government House to see a military parade reviewed by him on Columbus Day. The intimation was that the photographs were distributed for political effect.

"The entire country knows, says La Epoca in denying the responsibility of the Government in the matter, "that the President never consented to sit in front of a camera. Of the many pictures of him which circulate there is none that can be called authentic, although some may be taken here to take charge of more or less perfection."

DEFENDS THE ST. LOUIS AS TRADE CRUISE SHIP

Vessel Being Modernized, Says R. H. Laverie.

No finer ship could have been chosen to make the world trade cruise than the St. Louis, asserts Robert H. Laverie, marine surveyor, who is in charge of reconditioning the vessel. Mr. Laverie has written an answer to criticisms of C. S. King, secretary of the Atlantic Coast Shipbuilders' Association, who had declared that the St. Louis did not fairly represent modern American shipbuilding.

Mr. Laverie points out that the vessel is not being sent around the world as an advertisement of present day shipbuilding. Nevertheless, no better example of high class marine construction could be found, especially in view of some of the ships hastily constructed during the war "which have not enjoyed the finest of reputations," Mr. Laverie writes.

Reconditioning of the liner, which calls for the installation of new boiler and oil burning equipment, will modernize her in many respects, it is stated, while the design of her hull is as good as the best available to-day.

SOO FREIGHT TRAFFIC FALLS OFF TWO-THIRDS

Iron Leads in Decrease Through Canals.

SAULT STE MARIE, Mich., Dec. 2.— Freight traffic through the St. Mary's River canal during November amounted to a little more than one-third of the traffic of November, 1920, according to the monthly report made public to-day.
The total freight movement, east and west, for last month was 3,265,479 short tons. For November last year it was 9,419,580.

Grain movement last month showed a heavy increase over the same period last year, when leading with an increase of 16,096,258 bushels. The total wheat movement was 52,332,593 bushels.

Only 393,102 tons of iron ore was carried down the lake, compared to 5,583,920 tons for November last year.
A sharp decrease also was shown in upbound shipments of coal. The total for November this year was 633,443 tons, against 2,139,568 last year.

Vessel passengers numbered 1,195, compared to 2,007 a year ago.

LONGSHOREMEN YIELD.

Maine Union Accepts Wage Reduction.

PORTLAND, Me., Dec. 3.—The long-shoremen's wage dispute, which resulted in announcement by steamship officials last night that transatlantic sailings would be withdrawn from this port, was settled to-day. The longshoremen's union voted to accept a wage reduction for handling grain, which would make the pay for this class of work 35 cents an hour, with $1.36 for Sunday and overtime work.

The longshoremen will resume work on steamers now in port.

BOOKKEEPER IN BANK HELD IN $15,000 BAIL

Harry Brenner and Jacob Fleischman to Be Examined To-morrow.

SOUGHT FORTUNE IN RUM

$29,000 Theft Is Charged—Two Men Arrested in Brooklyn Cafe Holdup.

Harry Brenner, formerly a bookkeeper in the Broadway Central Bank, Broadway and Ninety-seventh street, who was arrested in connection with the theft of $29,000 from the bank by manipulation of accounts in the hope of making a fortune by bootlegging investments, was arrested yesterday in West Side Court with Jacob Fleischman of 300 West 118th street. They were charged with larceny, and held in $15,000 bail each for examination to-morrow.

Detectives Love and Fitzpatrick, who had been working on the case since November 21, when Brenner, it was alleged, left the bank at lunch time and did not return, which led to the discovery of the theft, arrested Brenner and Fleischman Friday night at First avenue and Eighty-seventh street.

The detectives said they obtained a statement from Brenner that he was led into the scheme by Fleischman, who approached him last August with a plan for acquiring liquor and disposing of it at high rates. Fleischman had a small account at the bank, and it was decided in order to obtain large sums of money Brenner, by a system of bookkeeping, could keep Fleischman's account up to the proper margin, and charge the withdrawals to other depositors.

Made $300 in One Deal.

This scheme worked satisfactorily, the detectives said, until Brenner discovered the extent to which funds had been borrowed, and fled. There were some profits in the bootlegging, however, the detectives reported. They said Brenner admitted having received $300 from Fleischman in one deal.

Frank Williams, president of the bank, issued a statement yesterday stating that Brenner, as is the custom in banks, was put on a different ledger, and that when this was done he disappeared. The bank is protected against such losses, Mr.
Williams said.

Three burglars attempted to rob the fur store of Alexander Tjern, 55 West Forty-fifth street, yesterday morning but were frightened by a burglar alarm, which they set off when they jimmied a slide door. They were seen escaping in a taxicab but had too long a lead to be overtaken.

Two men arrested on charges of having taken part in the holdup Wednesday night of John Malecki, a cafe proprietor of 720 Fourth avenue, Brooklyn, and the robbery of $3,000 from him, were held without bail on arraignment in Fifth avenue court yesterday. They were Joseph Zaidzinski, 333 Prospect avenue, and Frank Nowick, 141 Twenty-third street. Although the holdup men were made Malecki was said to have identified the men following their arrest.

Investigation of the robbery of Jewelry and other articles valued at $10,- 000 from the home of Mrs. Mary Ra-berg, a widow, 1187 Lexington avenue, led to the arraignment of Alice Stewart and Robert E. Leigh, negroes, 233 East Seventy-third street, on suspicion of grand larceny, in Harlem court, and the arraignment of William Hewlett, negro, 231 West Thirty-ninth street, charged with criminally receiving stolen goods.

The robbery is alleged to have occurred last summer while the Stewart woman was employed in the house as a maid. Leigh and the Stewart woman were held in $10,000 bail and Hewlett in $2,500 bail. Detectives said they obtained a confession from the Stewart woman that she and Leigh executed the robbery and that they intended, if necessary, to smother and lightly chloroform Mrs. Raberg, but that Raberg happened to be out at the time set for the theft.
The Stewart woman and Leigh were arrested in Hartford, Conn.

August Dufard, of 813 Broadway, Brooklyn, picked up by three detectives of the Gates Avenue station last night because they thought he seemed to shy at the approach of policemen, was said to have made statements about thirty robberies when taken to the station.

Dufard does house painting and on November 19 was hired to paint the outside of the home of Mrs. Margaret Schultz, at 41 Jefferson avenue. Mrs.
Schultz went out in the afternoon. Dufard and three of her gowns, a mink coat, three waists and a mink stole were missing when she returned. Entrance had been gained through a window.

BRITISH COAL TO TAKE PLACE OF U. S. PRODUCT

American Companies Making Change in Cuba.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Large American coal companies doing business in Cuba and have offices in Havana were declared in reports received here to-day in official circles to be preparing to replace their stocks of American coal in the island with British coal.

Orders have been sent to Havana, these official reports say, to clean up all American coal on the docks and to fill up with Cardiff coal, which reports assert, can be delivered at Havana at about $2 a ton cheaper than American coal.
The reports also say that four cargoes of the British coal are now en route to San Francisco for Pacific consumption.

American coal companies are understood of have made an extensive survey of the British coal fields, studying production and transportation costs in the light of conditions in this country.

British coal has not been in competition with American coal for the West Indies for the last twenty years, according to experts here, and the reported replacement of American coal with the British product at Havana was regarded as meaning the possible return of the British output to that market.

2 HELD ON LARCENY CHARGE.

Martie Epstein of 106 West 100th street and Harry Garrido of Erie, Pa., were held in $1,000 bail each by Magistrate George W. Simpson in Yorkville Court yesterday for hearing Wednesday on charges of larceny. They were alleged to have stolen merchandise from the store of Bonwit, Teller & Co. in Fifth avenue.

MARIE DRESSLER WEEPS AS DALTON IS BURIED

Wife of Dead Theatrical Manager Not at Funeral.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

CORNING, N. Y., Dec. 3.—During the burial here to-day of James S. Dalton, theatrical manager who died in Chicago Wednesday, Marie Dressler, the actress, with whom he had been associated for fifteen years, stood and wept in St.
Mary's Cemetery, beside the aged mother of Dalton, Mrs. Hannah Dalton of Boston. Mrs. T. A. Dalton of Allston, Mass., Dalton's wife, was not present.

Benjamin Dalton, brother of J. S.
Dalton, refused either to confirm or deny a report that Miss Dressler and Dalton had been married.

"It's none of the public's business," was the only reply he would make to questions bearing upon the relationship of the two.

Mrs. Hannah Dalton and Miss Dressler denied themselves to all callers and they would make no statement.

URGES GOVERNMENT AID FOR WORKLESS PEOPLE

Unemployment Conference Is for Pensions for Aged.

Dernorr, Dec. 3.—Deploping what they termed "unemployment unemployment," the members of the Brotherhood of Workers, who met at a national conference to-day made a plea for Governmental aid for all persons out of work and for a Government system of pensions for the aged.

James Eads How of St. Louis, a national trustee of the Brotherhood of Workers; Nicholas Klein, Cincinnati, attorney, and Robert Irwin, St.
Louis, were speakers at the opening session.

A mass meeting to-night was addressed by Glenn E. Plumb, author of the Plumb plan for railroad ownership.

Senator La Follette, one of the scheduled speakers, was unable to attend.

Gale Prevents Tugs From Working west to-day. The steel steamship Hydrex,

JERSEY TROOPERS TO BEGIN SERVICE

State Police Force of 74 Mounted Men Begin Duty
To-morrow.

MORE WILL BE TRAINED

Aim Is to Put Constabulary on Highest Possible Plane.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
TRENTON, Dec. 3.—Emulating the example set by Pennsylvania, New Jersey will place on duty Monday a State constabulary force of seventy-four mounted men, who have survived a course of three months intensive training at Sea Girt.
In the near future the initial force will be doubled when another batch of men have gone under the training course set by Col. H. Norman Schwarzkopf, a West Point graduate and an overseas veteran, who is determined to create in this State a constabulary force ranking with that of New York or the Canadian Northwest Mounted Police.

When the State troopers break camp at Sea Girt next Monday the occasion will mark the consummation of a movement started many years ago for a State police in New Jersey. The movement was successfully opposed for many years by organized labor, which was fearful that the purpose of a State constabulary was to interfere in strikes and thereby weaken labor organizations.

Prevalence of crime, coupled with lack of adequate policing in rural communities, resulted this year in the creation of the constabulary in the face of all opposition.

For the immediate future the State police will be stationed at Netcong, New Egypt and Hammonton, in the counties of Morris, Ocean and Atlantic respectively, as group centers. Training headquarters and barracks are being established on the Oaklands farm, near this city.

The men have been required to learn the art of self-defense in all its forms; to qualify in the effective use of firearms, as group centers. Training headquarters and barracks are being established on the Oaklands farm, near this city.
